

GLOBAL LIFE CAMPAIGN™

National & Global Day of Repentance for Abortion

To Return to God & Pray for End of Abortion, Healing & Restoration of Nations on 18 November 2020

Thomas W. Jacobson, Executive Director, Global Life Campaign (2020-11-12)

It is time to face the truth about abortion, and to end abortion. The shedding of innocent blood causes a curse, and human sacrifice unleashes the power of evil. But the good news is that the curse and power of evil can be broken, but only by Jesus Christ and the unlimited atoning power of His shed blood and righteousness. Even so, to break the power of evil over a community or nation also requires corresponding actions by the leaders and the people. They must be honest about the evil of abortion, and restore righteous laws, justice and protection of all, especially the innocent preborn children.

Let us unite in humility before our Creator and Savior on 18 November 2020, the 100th anniversary of the first nation (former Russian S.F.S.R.) authorizing abortion. Let us repent of the sin of abortion and related sins, pray for an end to abortion, and ask God to heal and restore our nations. It is time to end the Greatest Genocide in history of 1.1 Billion Babies. The LORD will hear our prayers and perhaps HE will change the course of history, and break the curses and power of evil tearing apart and destroying our nations.

- (2) 137 Nations: chronology of when they first authorized abortion.

After King David sinned, he wrote this contrite prayer for pardon:

“For the choir director. A Psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba. ‘Be gracious to me, O God, according to Your lovingkindness; according to the greatness of Your compassion blot out my transgressions. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin. For I know my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me. Against You, You only, I have sinned and done what is evil in Your sight, so that You are justified when You speak and blameless when You judge.

‘Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity, and in sin my mother conceived me. Behold, You desire truth in the innermost being, and in the hidden part You will make me know wisdom. Purify me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow. Make me to hear joy and gladness, let the bones which You have broken rejoice. Hide Your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquities.

‘Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me away from Your presence and do not take Your Holy Spirit from me. Restore to me the joy of Your salvation and sustain me with a willing spirit. Then I will teach transgressors Your ways, and sinners will be converted to You.

‘Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, the God of my salvation; then my tongue will joyfully sing of Your righteousness. O Lord, open my lips, that my mouth may declare Your praise. For You do not delight in sacrifice, otherwise I would give it; You are not pleased with burnt offering. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and a contrite heart, O God, You will not despise.

‘By Your favor do good to Zion; build the walls of Jerusalem. Then You will delight in righteous sacrifices, in burnt offering and whole burnt offering; then young bulls will be offered on Your altar” (Psalm 51).
